

UNITED BLUE MAX SYNTHETIC BLEND GREASE

United Blue Max Synthetic Blend Grease is made for a wide range of lubrication demands, thus reducing the need to carry large grease inventories. In addition, this grease provides excellent adhesive characteristics for stay-in-place performance and exceptional resistance to water and other adverse conditions. Its balanced, high load-carrying ability provides maximum protection by reducing friction and wear.

Storage and Handling:

- Tube should always be stored upright.
- If grease is left in gun: Depressurize, wipe clean, and store in clean, cool, dry place.
- Avoid prolonged storage, inspect if more than one year old.
- Storage life up to five years.
- Store in cool, dry indoor area that does not exceed 86°F and remains above 32°F.
- Do not store near heat source or expose to direct sunlight.
- Store in original packaging or container and keep container closed until time of use.
- Wipe lid or cover clean before opening.
- Always use clean tools and dispensing equipment.
- Close or cover container after use.

Features:

- Provides excellent bearing migration to ensure quick and thorough grease contact
- Good adhesion to metal during wet conditions
- Strong load-carrying capabilities and exceeds GC-LB specifications
- Best choice for inventory consolidation
- Environmentally conscious, contains no heavy metals

Applications:

- Heavy-duty truck fleets
- Automotive fleets
- Construction
- Agriculture
- Industrial
